

CLOVER DAY

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd
IS THE DAY

ONCE more we give our second CLOVER DAY SALE and people will remember the values we gave last time, and the number of people that passed through our store found the values just as advertised.

Following the very busy summer days, which have made this store the mecca for many people, comes the day of great activity—the event eagerly participated in by large numbers who recognize its opportunities.

The merchandise must be of a kind for which there is immediate use—desirable—because our high standard cannot be compromised, nor low prices be confounded with cheapness of quality.

More Than Usually Interesting is Clover Day for November!

Get our prices in our garment department to-morrow at Fitts.

Regular meeting of Barre lodge, No. 138, N. E. O. P., to-night.

Perry's store has just received its winter stock of blankets—all prices.

T. D. Gerrish of Brockton, Mass., was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

James McDonald left this noon for Boston, where he will pass a few days on business.

Another busy time at our store next Saturday. Read our ad. on page 5.

C. N. Kenyon & Co.

Charles Butterick has returned to his home in Boston, after passing a few days with friends in the city.

To-day being All Souls' day, special services were held in St. Monica's church at 5 o'clock and 8 o'clock this morning.

Homers Viel has returned from Burlington, where he went to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Bruno Alberts.

To-day is your last opportunity to see Whitney's Operatic Dolls and Nellie Daly Moran at the Pavilion. A swell show. Come early.

Miss Florence Parks, who came here to attend the Corcoran-Alexander wedding, returned this noon to her home in Belmont, Mass.

Notice: Monday, Nov. 6, is the last day you can pay your water rent without 10 per cent. being added. Office open every evening from 7 to 8.

Miss Edith Downey of Merchant street left the city Monday night for San Francisco, Cal., where she will pass the winter on account of impaired health.

The regularly monthly business meeting of the Philathea class of the Congregational church will be held in the class room Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonald, who were married in the city Monday morning, returned home last evening, after passing a few days in Burlington and Montreal.

Mrs. J. J. Ashline has returned to her home in South Barre, after caring for her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Belville, for the last three months. Mrs. Belville is recovering slowly.

Members of Court Phil Sheridan, with their families and the companions of the order, will have a social and dance in Foresters' hall Friday evening, Nov. 3. Good music. Ladies please bring cake.

A Halloween social will be held in the Congregational vestry this evening at 7 o'clock. A farce "Halloween Frolics" will be given by the girls, the bogie man, the spooks, the jack-o-lanterns, the charmers and a witch. Admission, 7c.

Hon. Mason S. Stone gives a short address Friday evening at the Methodist church. He will be followed by the president of the university of Vermont, Rev. Guy Potter Benton, D. D., who will give his great lecture on "Samuel Adams, Patriot."

Alden and Doris Burke, children of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burke, entertained a large party of their young friends last evening with a Halloween party. The young people were all dressed in fantastic costumes and games characteristic of the day were played.

The employees in the local Central Vermont freight office and Agent F. J. McEneaney went to St. Albans last evening, where they attended a lecture on the handling of high explosives by railroads, which lectures all employees of the road are required to take.

A party of four bridge inspectors left Montpelier this morning to look over the bridges on the Barre railroad. The inspectors passed through this city at 8 o'clock, going directly to Graniteville. Instead of chartering a special train, the party made the trip in an auto track car.

The monthly business meeting of the ladies' guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will be held at the home of Mrs. Waldron Shield, 1 East street, Thursday evening, Nov. 2, at 7.30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Nedd, who have been visiting for a few days at the home of Moses Charbonneau, returned this morning to their home in Shelburne. Mr. and Mrs. Nedd have been on a three weeks' trip to Springfield and Worcester, Mass., and Manchester, N. H.

The boom on the big derrick at the Cutler, Storor & Fay company's yard broke yesterday, while a large stone was being raised, and though several workmen were close by the boom, which fell in two pieces, no one was hit by it. The boom broke nearly in the center, where it was found that it had become defective from age.

The condition of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassani, who was severely injured in falling from a telephone pole last week, is improving slowly. The lad sustained a fracture of the pelvis in the accident and it is feared that an operation will be necessary before he can regain his health.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The N. E. O. P. orchestra is composed of A-1 dance players; leader, E. W. Bruce. You are sure to be pleased. Thursday evening, Nov. 2, Miles hall.

Forty young people were entertained at a Halloween party by the children of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gove at their home, 32 Eastern avenue, last evening. The time was enjoyably passed in playing games and during the later hours of the evening music formed a diversion. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the party.

Engineer William Chayer of Roxbury, who was injured in the train wreck at Riverton last week, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Chayer has not fully recovered from injuries received in the smash-up and it is believed that an X-ray examination will be necessary to determine the exact extent of injuries to his left foot.

"A Rebellious Blossom."

She was a rebellious blossom, a school-girl (Miss Lawrence) and, as pictured, a charmingly praiseworthy young lady. She didn't like the idea of her mother's marrying again. The player who takes the widow's part also deserves praise. Mr. Johnson is the gray-haired suitor, and fills the part with distinction. In the picture there are bits of true comedy. By a happy chance, the professor's nephew comes to visit him and to fool the girl, the mother and professor agree to have him pretend to court her. He does it thoroughly. It's a scream. At Dreamland.

Menu for Universalist Supper.

The menu for the chicken-pie supper at the Universalist church Wednesday evening is as follows and will be served from 4.30 to 7:
